Description of Waste Reduction Efforts During Odd-Numbered Reporting Calendar Year:	Thompson & Johnson Equipment Co. (T&J) is in the business of providing material handling equipment sales, leasing, service, parts and rental for local / regional users. As such, poor or dead batteries are traded or exchanged for new, necessitating the accumulation of truckload quantities to be recycled. T&J's only avenue to reduce the volume is to work with users to properly maintain their batteries and hence extend the life of lead acid batteries.
